RESOLUTION 2022-09

WHEREAS, the State of Ohio's publically funded youth workforce programs are served through the Comprehensive Case Management Employment Program (the "CCMEP") as a single population under a consolidated system of service delivery, and requires the leveraging of federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (the "TANF") and Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (the "WIOA") funds;

WHEREAS, on 2/16/2021, a joint Request for Proposal packet was released by the Summit/Medina Workforce Development Board (the "WDB") and the Medina County Job and Family Services (the "MCJFS") for the provision of CCMEP youth educational and employment services funded with both TANF and WIOA allocations;

WHEREAS, at its meeting held 7/6/2021, the Medina County Commissioners on behalf of the MCJFS, adopted a Resolution awarding the TANF portion of a joint TANF- and WIOA-funded CCMEP subrecipient agreement to JOG, for the period of 7/1/2021 to 6/30/2022, with two 12-month renewal options, in a total amount not to exceed $571,799.00 in TANF funding;

WHEREAS, at its 6/24/2021 meeting, the WDB recommended to the SAMWA COG the award of the WIOA portion of a joint TANF- and WIOA-funded CCMEP subrecipient agreement to JOG, for the period of 7/1/2021 to 6/30/2022, with two 12-month renewal options, in a total amount not to exceed $255,000.00 in WIOA funding;
